

Sharon Markette

Served: House of Representatives 1983-85
Party: Democrat
School: Chicago State University
Occupation: State/Federal Government

Sharon Markette was born on February 5, 1956 in Montgomery, Alabama. She attended Chicago State University, majoring in Criminal Justice. After graduation, Markette worked for the Illinois Department of Employment Security. In 1983, she was appointed to the Illinois House of Representatives, replacing Ozie Hutchins, who resigned when he was convicted of extortion. Markette served on the Committees of Personnel & Pensions, Human Services, Elections, Transportation & Motor Vehicles and Small Business. Markette was also a member of the Commission to Visit and Examine State Institutions. She is a member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority.