

Suburban Life

Riverside • North Riverside • Riverside Lawn

Volume 55 No. 8 A2

December 24-28, 2003

Riverside native shares holiday sounds

Joseph Tecson of Riverside is promoting his son's newest compact disc, "A Jazz Celebration of Christmas."

Andy Tecson, who grew up in Riverside and now makes his home in Downers Grove, introduced the music Dec. 13 during a program at Gloria Dei Lutheran Church in Downers Grove.

The CD contains 15 classical Christmas songs by Tecson's jazz band and includes a choir and vocalists. Among the songs are "O, Holy Night," "Go Tell it on the Mountain," "God Rest Ye Merry Gentlemen" and "Silent Night."

The choir features Tecson's wife, Nancy Hagen Tecson, and a cast of 20, including Chicago Symphony Orchestra trumpet virtuoso Adolph Bud Herseth and Tecson's 13-year-old son, Luke Hagen Tecson.

The album is available from Southport Records in Chicago by visiting online at www.insjazz.com, or by calling Tecson at (630) 968-3143.

Pilgrimage plans

Kathryn Kenahan will be walking a

Riverside News

also serving
North
Riverside

Valerie
Kunz

100-mile pilgrimage, following her graduation from Riverside-Brookfield High School in June. She will be traveling in northwestern Spain on the ancient "Camino de Santiago de Compostela," raising funds for the poor in Lima, Peru.

"As a member of the expedition, I must raise $5,000 in sponsorships, which will be used by 'Coprodeli,' an organization that serves 50,000 people living in extreme poverty in and around Lima," Kathryn said.

In the Middle Ages, all roads led to Santiago de Compostela. People walked from all over the Christian world to visit the grave of the apostle Saint James (Sant Iago), with the first recorded pilgrimage arriving in Santiago in 550 A.D. Today, thousands make the pilgrimage, walking hundreds of miles from their homes.

Kathryn will be "doing some serious baby-sitting to provide money for my passage, room and board," she said, but is asking for help with the $5,000

Blues legend B.B. King (left) joins Sue and Tom Carey of Riverside during a fund-raiser for The HistoryMakers in Chicago. The Careys co-chaired the event, which will help support the preservation of African-American history.

donation.

Donations made by Thursday, Jan. 15, are tax-deductible. Forms are available at Riverside Public Library. For more information, visit online at www.coprodeli.org.

History makers

Sue and Tom Carey of Riverside played a role in making and preserving history when the couple recently served as co-chairs of The HistoryMakers' fourth annual celebrity interview event, "An Evening with B.B. King."

The HistoryMakers is an organization working to preserve African-American history in the Chicago area.

R&B legend Isaac Hayes conducted the one-on-one interview with King for The HistoryMakers fund-raiser. It was taped before a live audience at the Art Institute of Chicago and will air as a national PBS-TV special next year.

Entertainment:

By HistoryMakers:

Legendary Blues Great B.B. King Honored at Fund-raiser

A Chicago area couple, Sue & Tom Carey, play a role in the making and preservation of local history.

The Careys recently served as co-chairs of The HistoryMakers 4th annual celebrity interview event, "An Evening With B.B. King."

R & B legend Isaac Hayes conducted the one-on-one interview with Mr. King for The HistoryMakers fundraiser. It was taped before a live audience at the Art Institute of Chicago; and will be aired as a National PBS-TV special next year.

"Two very influential musicians of our time were brought together to represent blues and R & B at this event," Sue Carey told the BULLETIN. "I was just so thrilled to be a part of this event and support history in the making."

The HistoryMakers

is the largest national not-for-profit organization, dedicated to recording and preserving the personal histories of well-known African-Americans and "unsung heroes whose path-breaking achievements might go unrecognized."

To date, 700 interviews have been added to the archives.

"Market Day" Benefits St. John De La Salle School

Music Legend Honored

AT RECENT HistoryMakers 4th annual fund-raiser, "An Evening With B.B. King", a Chicago area couple played a role in the making and preservation of history. Sue and Tom Carey co-chaired this event, which was taped before a live audience at the Art Institute of Chicago. In top photo, Tom and Sue Carey chat with R & B legend Isaac Hayes; and lower picture has honored Blues great B.B. King posing with the Careys.