Want to...

- Help increase awareness of The HistoryMakers, a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization and the nation’s largest African American video oral history archive (www.thehistorymakers.org), across your college or university?
- Effectively take others inside the lives of black people, further cultural understanding on your campus, and spread the word about a unique digital archive housed permanently at the Library of Congress?

The HistoryMakers is committed to preserving, developing, and providing easy access to its internationally-recognized archival collection of thousands of African American video oral histories from a broad range of backgrounds and experiences. It is looking for a passionate and highly motivated student ambassador at each of our subscribing institutions to help do so.

This paid position provides a unique opportunity to:

- Learn valuable research, writing, presentation, and communications skills;
- Engage with an innovative non-profit;
- Promote the effective use of a one-of-a-kind digital archive for use in and outside of the classroom (in-person, hybrid, or virtual); and
- Receive on-the-job training that will make you more attractive to employers.

For you to become one of our student ambassadors:

1. You must be a current sophomore, junior, senior, or graduate student and able to commit to 10 hours per week from October 2022 through April 2023 (not during holidays). You will be expected to document your hours, submit weekly progress reports, and participate in weekly conference calls.
2. Your college or university must subscribe to The HistoryMakers Digital Archive.
3. You must commit to participating in weekly Zoom calls during the school year.
4. You must spend at least five hours per week doing in-depth exploration of The HistoryMakers Digital Archive.
5. You must write a weekly blog post based on research using The HistoryMakers Digital Archive;
6. You must develop in-person and video/Zoom presentations and programs to show faculty, students, and others how to use The HistoryMakers Digital Archive;
7. You must conceive and implement an effective and engaging campus-wide Black History Month Digital Archive Contest for February 2023;
8. You must adhere to the Student Ambassador code of ethics.

For more information, please visit https://www.thehistorymakers.org/student-ambassador.

For inquiries, please contact Noah Kelly at nk@thehistorymakers.org or 312-674-1900.
Preferred Skills

Strong applicants must possess:

- A love of writing and of history;
- Strong research, writing, presentation, and communications skills;
- Tech-savviness and strong administrative and organizational skills;
- The ability to work independently and be self-motivated;
- A high degree of professionalism and a sense of ethics;
- Leadership skills and a passion for building and growing relationships.

Supervisor

Every applicant must identify a faculty or staff member (e.g., professor, librarian, cultural center employee) on their campus who has agreed to supervise their work for the duration of the program and include their contact information.

Compensation

You will be paid $15 per hour of documented work.

Experience

Every student ambassador will gain:

- Familiarity with e-resources and expertise with The HistoryMakers Digital Archive;
- Exposure to African American subject matter and leadership;
- Increased research, writing, administrative, public speaking, and presentation skills;
- Opportunities to interact professionally with students and faculty.

Application Instructions

Please complete the application form here: https://forms.gle/2RtFiiKNrfmmrHCm8

You will be prompted to:

- Upload your resume/CV with a copy of your unofficial transcript(s).
- Include a 500-word, single-spaced essay on why you should be chosen to serve as The HistoryMakers Student Ambassador for your college or university and how you can meet and/or exceed the requirements stated. Please be specific.
- Include a 500-word essay that describes how you found yourself in the Digital Archive as well as your process (please see more information here).
- List the contact information (name, title, department/affiliation, email address, and phone number) of the faculty or staff member who has agreed to supervise
I presented for Dr. Patterson’s History of Africa to 1865 class. I relayed [The HistoryMakers] Digital Archive’s rich source for supporting evidence for their assignments. Through the Digital Archive, many of Dr. Patterson’s students [could] better inform themselves and their academic work.”

2021-2022 Student Ambassador

The HistoryMakers Digital Archive

In 2020, COVID-19 and the resultant challenges to society and higher education created significant demands and needs for innovation, increasing use of online learning and asynchronous instruction. The HistoryMakers Digital Archive provides real-life narratives that establish a roadmap for navigating and making sense of many of the most contentious issues of today. It also provides students rich primary source content for classroom learning in the form of a unique electronic resource.

The HistoryMakers Digital Archive makes accessible the first-person video oral history testimonies of The HistoryMakers, a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization headquartered in Chicago, Illinois. With more than 11,000 hours of searchable content, The HistoryMakers Digital Archive’s highlighted transcripts and curated story segments make searching the collection both efficient and effective. Over 3,300 interviews of African American leaders from across a variety of disciplines—including the arts, business, civic engagement, education, entertainment, law, media, medicine, STEM, the military, music, politics, religion, sports, and fashion & beauty—are featured in The HistoryMakers Collection. Interviews last two to fifteen hours in length and have been conducted in 413 U.S. cities and towns—as well as in international locations like Mexico, the Caribbean, and Norway. With recollections dating back to the 1700s, the archive contains thousands of subjects including business, technology, the Great Migration, foodways, poetry, The Black Arts Movement, funeral rites, public health, modern music, LGBTQ, science, theology, integration, shifts in beauty culture, black feminism, and more. The HistoryMakers archives also contain the stories of Alonzo Pettie, the oldest living black cowboy, and statesman General Colin Powell; as well as poets Nikki Giovanni and Sonia Sanchez. Also included are 211 of the nation’s top scientists, including Katherine Johnson, who was featured in the Hollywood movie Hidden Figures; civic leaders C.T. Vivian and Marion Wright Edelman; music icons Berry Gordy and Quincy Jones; business leaders former Amex CEO Ken Chenault, Merck CEO Ken Frazier, and former Xerox CEO Ursula Burns; lawyers former U.S. Attorney General Eric Holder and NAACP Legal Defense Fund president Sherrilyn Ifill, political leaders Congresswoman Maxine Waters and former President Barack Obama (when he was an Illinois State Senator); as well as New York Times columnist Charles Blow, innovative artist Theaster Gates, museum director Thelma Golden, restaurateur Marcus Samuelsson, and entrepreneur Daymond John.

In 2014, the Library of Congress became The HistoryMakers’ permanent repository. It heralded The HistoryMakers as a “one of a kind, unparalleled resource that is vitally important to the nation and the world and to those seeking a more complete record of our nation’s history and its people.”

“My involvement with The HistoryMakers Digital Archive has propelled me into the joyous, anecdotal world of oral histories. I hardly ever get to ‘hear’ the sources that I utilize in my research, and this drastically changes things.”
