Title:	Pioneers in the Struggle: Teacher Training (Chicago 2001),
Dates:	2001
Bulk Dates:	2001
Physical Description:	1 Box Paper Records.
Abstract:	This collection contains detailed records of Pioneers in the Struggle Teacher Training. As part of a $300,000 grant from the State of Illinois, The HistoryMakers produced the educational program entitled Pioneers in the Struggle. Pioneers in the Struggle is a three-part educational package that includes a documentary video, interactive CD-ROM and teachers' curriculum guide that chronicles the little known and fascinating history of African American participation in the Illinois General Assembly from 1877-2001. This is a finding aid for the Teacher Training. The Pioneers in the Struggle curriculum was designed for students to see the legislative process in action. Interactive CD-ROM and teachers' curriculum guide helps educators take students through the historic struggle of African Americans to gain citizenship in the State of Illinois, the militant legislators who help up the Century of Progress until civil rights were guaranteed, the struggle for fair employment legislation at the national and state level, and the formation of the Independent Black Legislative Caucus. The curriculum ties in to local, state, and national history. The HistoryMakers held live events and teacher trainings to promote the curriculum for Pioneers in the Struggle. This package was distributed free of charge to all Illinois Public Schools. Pioneers in the Struggle traces the history of African Americans in the Illinois General Assembly from the Reconstruction Days of John W.E. Thomas to 2001, when the project was completed. These African American statesmen and stateswomen were responsible for many of the civil rights that today's citizens hold. Pioneers in the Struggle features interviews from former Senate President Emil Jones, Jr., Secretary of State Jesse White, Ambassador Carol Moseley Braun, the late Mayor Harold Washington, President Barack Obama, when he was a State Senator and many others who served in the Illinois General Assembly. The HistoryMakers also interviewed political science scholars Chares Branham, Christopher Reed, David Joens, and Dick Simpson for the project. The Pioneers in the Struggle documentary was produced by Julieanna L. Richardson. The HistoryMakers videotaped the following interviews as part of this documentary: State Senators: Ethel Skyles-Alexander, Howard Brookins, Earlean Collins, James Clayborne, Jr., Rickey Hendon, Emil Jones, Jr., Kimberly Lightford, Barack Obama, Alice Palmer, William "Bill" Shaw State Representatives: Larry Bullock, Monique Davis, Mary Flowers, Calvin Giles, Constance Howard, Howard Kenner, Jesse Madison, Charles Morrow III, Sylvester Rhem, Monica Faith Stewart, Arthur Turner, Todd Stroger, Jerry Washington, Paul Williams, Clarence Williamson, Jesse White and Anthony Young.
Identification:	S2001_015
Language:	The interview and records are in English.

Biographical Note by The HistoryMakers®

The HistoryMakers

The HistoryMakers is a national 501(c)(3) non profit educational institution founded in 1999, committed to preserving, developing and providing easy access to an internationally recognized, archival collection of thousands of African American video oral histories. The HistoryMakers is the single largest archival collection of its kind in the world designed to promote and celebrate the successes and to document movements, events and organizations that are important to the African American community and to American society.

The HistoryMakers is the next methodic and wide-scale collection effort since the WPA Slave Narratives Project from 1936 to 1938. The HistoryMakers goal is to complete 5,000 interviews of both well-known and unsung African American HistoryMakers. In recording messages of leadership, achievement and perseverance embodied in these life stories, The HistoryMakers has disseminates its holdings through traditional and interactive media as well as public programs, special events, an interactive website and a unique digital archive.

The purpose of this archive is to educate the world on the accomplishments of African Americans, show the breadth and depth of this important American history as told in the first person, highlight the accomplishments of individual African Americans, showcase those who have played a role in African American-led movements and/or organizations and preserve these video oral histories for years and generations to come.
