SRO: PEOPLE TO WATCH

Getting in on the glamour

Cy Fredrics jewelers of Glenview is taking its precious jewelry line to the 60th annual Primetime Emmy Awards, which airs tonight on ABC. Cy's son Michael Lemick, his wife April and son Dustin, 26, and members of the Fredrics staff will set up a display of custom rings, necklaces, bracelets and specialty watches in a suite at the Beverly Eartha Kitt, which will be presented Saturday Sept. 20 at Northwestern University Law Schools Thorne Auditorium in Chicago. It is produced by the HistoryMakers, a national nonprofit organization in Chicago with the single largest African American archival collection in the world. The show, which includes an interview with Kitt by Gwen Hill, is being taped for broadcast on PBS during Black History Month next February.

vice's community event, which begins at 7 p.m. at Temple Jeremiah, 937 Happ Road in Northfield. Her topic will be "Overcoming Adversity during the Teenage Years," drawing examples from her own life and career. A musical program begins at 8 p.m. Tickets are $10 for students and teachers and $50 for adults. For information, visit www.linkyouth.org. Also: Cedille Records is inviting the public to a free all-ages CD release party from 3 to 4:30 p.m. Sunday Oct. 5 at S.P.A.C.E. 1245 Chicago Ave., Evanston to meet and greet Pine and hear selections from her newest album "Beethoven & Clement Violin Concertos." She will sign albums and perform several selections.

Wishline Hotel and present them during an invitation-only reception before the show. The guest list includes Oprah Winfrey, Beoncé, Brad Pitt, Angelina Jolie, Jennifer Aniston, Tom Cruise, the cast of "Desperate Housewives," and others. "These are our very high-end items and they are available for purchase," said Heide Kogan, store manager and buyer, who is also going to California.

"We made the connection through our publicist and we are now on the list for the Oscars and the Grammy Awards."

Author, author! Deerfield writer Jenny Meyerhoff reads from and signs copies of her new book, Third Grade Baby, from 2 to 3 p.m. Sept. 27 at Barnes and Noble in Deerfield Square. Cited by Scholastic's Instructor Magazine and inspired by a true life story, the novel tells the tale of third grade girl who still has her baby teeth and how she overcomes bullying and makes friends. Meyerhoff wrote it while teaching kindergarten in Northbrook. She is also looking to award copies of the book and related prizes to third grade classes each month of the school year. To nominate one, see jennymeyerhoff.com.
