WOMAN POWER. Inc. will hold its 4th Annual Membership Tea on April 21 from 3 to 6 p.m. at the St. James Episcopal Parish Community Center, 1020 W. Lafayette Ave. This year’s tea will honor former mayor, governor and comptroller William Donald Schaefer, State Sen. Nathaniel McFadden and Maryland Gov. Parris Glendening at the tea. Woman Power President, Barbara Smith and Program Chair Bessie Brown will preside. For information call 410-383-5821.

Woman Power Inc. is a nonprofit, civic, and community organization that was founded in 1953 by Victoria O. Adams and Edith P. Rich as a non-partisan organization to stimulate women to become more civic-minded citizens. Its membership consists of women and men who are registered voters in the state of Maryland and District of Columbia. In its motto: "Each One Teach One—Each One Teach One.”

MEMBERS OF THE LINKS INC. will be off next week to attend their 59th Eastern Area Conference in Atlanta, Ga. On the agenda is a general membership workshop, the presentation of "white paper" on such issues as civil trafficking and autism in the black community.

HISTORIOMAKERS, that great organization which now has 1500 members of outstanding African Americans on its Web site will begin interviewing across the country this month. Among the cities to be visited are Washington D.C., and Chicago. April 22-28 and New York, April 29-30. Amy Bellamy will be their goal is to do 40 interviews per month. She also announced that the University of Illinois just got the organization $1 million over three years to help with the publishing of the collection. If you know of someone who you think should be in this collection contact Amy Bellamy at abellamy@bigplanet.com or 202-584-2565.

NEWLY ELECTED OFFICERS of the Philomathians, Lovers of Learning, are seated from left, Sara Gray, president and Janet Douglass, vice president; standing, Dr. Roselyn Hammontree, secretary of archives; Dr. Mariane Greer Chase, treasurer; Jenie Greenwood Harris Esq., parliamentarian; Courtina Johnson, recording secretary; Dr. Shelle Richardson, corresponding secretary and the Rev. Dr. Philip Braxton, chaplain. Call 410-945-2565.

DR. HARRY MAJORS' new book African America which he says he may express in the form of another one of those that I will fully appreciate. I started it a book, I started to read it because of Dr. Majors and the "frustrations of the book" in the United States as experienced by an Afro-Caribbean post graduate student. Maybe I don’t but it also dramatizes how loose our minds are in this country. I give you the book and present a method of how you can understand his book to his family. Four daughters.

DR. RUTHEYDE. SHELLEY, distinguished professor of English at Morgan State University and a nationally acclaimed scholar and authority on Zora Neale Hurston, recently received the 2007 NAACP Outstanding Morgan Woman Award. Congratulations!

STE. BERNADETTE CATHOLIC SCHOOL, 901 Old Frederick Rd., is holding Mother's Day plans for the school carnival, been held on May 3. On the program are croquet, bowling, slides, basketball, games, vendors, face painting, clowns, food, fish, hot dogs, hamburger, corn on the cob, snow balls, candy apples, music, R&B, gospel, hip hop and line dance. There will also be a dunk tank event starting Father Edward Miller. An Open House will be held at the school at 10:30 a.m., followed by the carnival starting at noon and the clowns at 2 p.m. The event is sponsored by the parents to benefit the School. For information call Teresa Carter, 410-869-9779 or Deborah.

If you ask me

FRANKIE LOU

THE KAPPA ALPHA PSI FOUNDATION of Northeastern Baltimore and Morgan State University Alpha Iota Chapter will present the Kappa Art Gallery at Morgan State University’s new Student Union Center on April 15, from 1-3 p.m. to benefit student scholarships. Personal Preference Inc., one of the largest distributors of art on canvas, will provide the art. The art gallery will feature over 150 framed and painted paintings on canvas for sale with prices beginning at $35. For their online art gallery at www.frankieloumakers.com. For more information call Kappa Alpha Psi "Fel" Houston, art consultant, 410-429-1760.

PRE-SCHOOL Princess Ball is set for four branches of the Enosh Past Fire Library this month from 3 to 5 years old. The balls will be held at Govan and the Warder branch on April 25, Light Street branch on April 26 and the Northwood Branch on April 28. All will feature live music and dancing. Moms and dads are urged to dress up their little ones in the finest and call any one of these branches to reg- ister.

APRIL 23-24 is National Volunteer Week. Have you volunteered to help others?

VIOLA CARTER, who wrote and directed the play "Touch Your Risen Savior," is soon to be joined by her cast of Hugo Boll at Christian Life Church, 60000 S. and new of her year, written by Brooks McCord, NAACP membership director.

THANKS TO ALL READERS who have told me they just love the way the AFRO looks these days—the good stu- dies, pictures, color etc. We do aim to please. Remember you can get a free one month subscrip- tion to the AFRO by calling Wanda Pearson at 410-554-8200.

GOT GOOD NEWS? Don’t hesitate. Send your news and pic- turns to FranklinLou (Pou McPhail) at the Baltimore Sun (202) 385-3940.

THE TRI-STATE ASSOCIATION of Maryland, Delaware and D.C., of the Improv Benedictive Protective Order Links of the (IPOEPOE) held its 41st annual Debutante Cotillion recently at the Sheraton Hotel in Dover, Del., with some 50 guests attending. State presidents are Carlton Stanley and Jean V. Russell. Crit this affair were Ewwood Russell, Alvin Tinch, Luvenice Tinch and Margaret Selby, choreographer was Tamilla Johnson. Debutantes shown above from left are, Hoya, Ewa McCay, Stephanie Whiteley, Toniea Seneck, Brittany Palmer and Courtney Johnson; second row, Wyneshie Pierce, Tiffany Scott, Amanda John Ashley Stanford, Kimberly Anderson and Dainne Webb; third row, Kierra Johns Felicia Brokenshain and Julieanne Cool.

A scene from the play Touch Your Risen Savior.

EASTER SUNDAY was real busy with church, a coffee hour and then family dinner, but when granddaughter Andrea Evans and husband Shawn told me that an Easter musical carillon was played by his mother, Verna Flattus was having a wonderful time at Easter Sunday.