

Douglas Anderson to host hospital administrator Delores Brisbon September 17

September 16th, 2010 3:45 pm ET

By Steve DiMattia, Jacksonville Public Education Examiner

Douglas Anderson will host Delores Brisbon September 17
Photo: In Trust

Douglas Anderson School of the Arts will host Delores Brisbon for its "Back to School with The HistoryMakers" program on Friday, September 17 from 10:30 to 11:30 a.m.

Brisbon is a Jacksonville native who attended Douglas Anderson when it was an elementary school. She also graduated salutatorian from Stanton High School in 1950, and then earned her bachelor's degree in nursing from Tuskegee University in 1954. In 1974 she was awarded a sociology degree from the University of Pennsylvania.

Brisbon rose to national prominence as a hospital administrator in some of the largest hospitals throughout the United States. She is currently the Chair of Strategic Planning for Eastern University College Board of Trustees in Pennsylvania.

HistoryMakers is a national African-American organization that highlights the accomplishments of individuals throughout the United States who have played important roles in African-American led movements and/or organizations across a variety of disciplines.

Douglas Anderson School of the Arts is located at 2445 San Diego Road in Jacksonville.

Tags: 2010 events, Duval County Schools

Online Chaplain Program

Chaplaincy Masters Degrees and More Request Free Information!
www.eLearners.com/Chaplain

LPN to RN Program Online

NLNAC accredited schools for LPNs Earn RN/ASN degrees Online
www.CollegeNetwork.com/LPN2RN

\$3,000 Scholarships

Win $3,000 to use at a college you choose. Select your school here.
www.ScholarshipWinings.com

Ads by Google